STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

(For issuance of an arrest warrant or summons)

I state that on December 24th, 2019 while exercising my duties as a law enforcement officer in the Judicial District of Arizona.

I, U.S Park Ranger, Leah Tobin #1201, while on duty within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Grand Canyon National Park, Coconino County, Arizona. At approximately 18:44, I received a call from dispatch for a suspected person driving under the influence of alcohol at Supai Camp Loop Road. The vehicle had hit a building and almost hit a second building and was currently stuck in the snow off the road.

I responded with Officers Hodgson and Heller to Supai Camp Loop. Upon arrival to Supai Loop we were met by the reporting party, Giovanna Whitaker, in front of cabin #10. Whitaker stated that her neighbor Jennifer SIYUJA, the female in the red Dodge Caravan, had gotten her vehicle stuck in the snow after hitting a building and nearly hitting a second one. SIYUJA was reported as being belligerent and yelling profanities at her son and neighbor. We could hear SIYUJA yelling from 200 feet away.

As we approached the scene I observed fresh jagged tire tracks through the snow. They went off the roadway to the left and ran next to building # 17, which had obvious damage. At the end of the tracks was a red Dodge caravan bearing Nevada plate () the vehicle was registered to Jennifer Leann SIYUJA out of Grand Canyon National Park. It was off the roadway and visibly stuck in the snow. The vehicle was running, the gas pedal was being depressed with the tires continually spinning in place. The tires were dug several inches into the dirt and a log was under the driver's side of the vehicle. I watched the vehicle's reverse lights turn on and heard the engine as the gas pedal was being depressed. There was obvious driver's side damage to the caravan, several long scratches down the driver's side with a larger area at the driver's door.

Two male individuals were near the vehicle stating that there was a log under the vehicle and they needed assistance getting the vehicle unstuck. The males were identified as juvenile Desman Siyuja, the son of the driver, and Lawrence Watahomigie known as "Junior" a neighbor who resides at Supai Camp # 14.

All individuals are known to law enforcement and considered locals who live within Grand Canyon National Park at Supai

Camp. SIYUJA was seated in the driver's seat with the vehicle on and in reverse with her foot on the gas as we approached. SIYUJA was yelling and screaming profanities with slurred speech at the two males. The son attempted to talk with SIYUJA and calm her down, however she continued to use profanity and yell at the juvenile. SIYUJA screamed "I hate you", "Fuck you", "No, you did this to me" at her son.

SIYUJA continued yelling and screaming profanities with slurred speech. Rangers gave her numerous commands to turn the vehicle off, she did not comply. Officer Heller reached in and turned the vehicle off. Rangers then gave SIYUJA commands to get out of the vehicle and she did not make any motion to exit the vehicle and said "No" several times. I observed a strong odor of alcohol coming from SIYUJA. Officer Heller, Hodgson and I removed SIYUJA with physical control from the vehicle through the driver's side door by grabbing her arms and pulling, and pushing from behind. SIYUJA resisted and fought with officers while being placed in hand cuffs by bracing her arms and pulling them away from officer's grips. We placed SIYUJA in handcuffs behind her back. SIYUJA did not comply with any commands to stand or walk and we had to carry her away from the vehicle into an open area to conduct a search incident to arrest. Officers carried SIYUJA to the back door of a caged police vehicle and attempted to place her in the back. SIYUJA actively resisted being placed into the vehicle by bracing her upper body and legs against the door frame as she was pushed and pulled into the vehicle. Throughout the contact SIYUJA continued yelling and screaming profanities with slurred speech.

SIYUJA was transported to station one for post arrest intoxication screening and processing. SIYUJA refused to provide a breath sample and a blood draw warrant was then requested and obtained by Officer Heller.

SIYUJA requested to use the bathroom, she was accompanied by two female officers, myself and Officer ORFE. SIYUJA was escorted into the bathroom, handcuffs were removed to allow her to use the facilities. Just after washing her hands and prior to cuffs being placed back on, SIYUJA punched me with a closed fist in the right side of my head. Orfe and I grabbed SIYUJA's hands and pinned her into the wall and counter to gain physical control. We placed SIYUJA back in handcuffs in the rear. With the assistance of other officers we transferred her to a medical gurney with cuffs in front and soft restraints.

Officer Hovanec conducted the DUI processing, and blood draw. SIYUJA actively resisted the blood draw by flexing and moving her arms resulting in minor bleeding secondary to the needle being removed. Throughout the blood draw process SIYUJA continued yelling and screaming profanities with slurred speech.

I issued SIYUJA a federal violation notice for 36 CFR 2.35 (c) under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance

STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

(For issuance of an arrest warrant or summons)

I state that on December 24th, 2019 while exercising my duties as a law enforcement officer in the Judicial District of Arizona.

I, U.S Park Ranger, Leah Tobin #1201, while on duty within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Grand Canyon National Park, Coconino County, Arizona. At approximately 18:44 I received a call from dispatch for a suspected person driving under the influence of alcohol at Supai Camp Loop Road. The vehicle had hit a building and almost hit a second building and was currently stuck in the snow off the road.

I responded with Officers Hodgson and Heller to Supai Camp Loop. Upon arrival to Supai Loop we were met by the reporting party, Giovanna Whitaker, in front of cabin #10. Whitaker stated that her neighbor Jennifer SIYUJA, the female in the red Dodge Caravan, had gotten her vehicle stuck in the snow after hitting a building and nearly hitting a second one. SIYUJA was reported as being belligerent and yelling profanities at her son and neighbor. We could hear SIYUJA yelling from 200 feet away.

As we approached the scene I observed fresh jagged tire tracks through the snow. They went off the roadway to the left and ran next to building # 17, which had obvious damage. At the end of the tracks was a red Dodge caravan bearing Nevada plate (). The vehicle was registered to Jennifer Leann SIYUJA out of Grand Canyon National Park. It was off the roadway and visibly stuck in the snow. The vehicle was running, the gas pedal was being depressed with the tires continually spinning in place. The tires were dug several inches into the dirt and a log was under the driver's side of the vehicle. I watched the vehicle's reverse lights turn on and heard the engine as the gas pedal was being depressed. There was obvious driver's side damage to the caravan, several long scratches down the driver's side with a larger area at the driver's door.

Two male individuals were near the vehicle stating that there was a log under the vehicle and they needed assistance getting the vehicle unstuck. The males were identified as juvenile Desman Siyuja, the son of the driver, and Lawrence Watahomigie known as "Junior" a neighbor who resides at Supai Camp # 14.

All individuals are known to law enforcement and considered locals who live within Grand Canyon National Park at Supai

Camp. SIYUJA was seated in the driver's seat with the vehicle on and in reverse with her foot on the gas as we approached. SIYUJA was yelling and screaming profanities with slurred speech at the two males. The son attempted to talk with SIYUJA and calm her down, however she continued to use profanity and yell at the juvenile. SIYUJA screamed "I hate you", "Fuck you", "No, you did this to me" at her son.

SIYUJA continued yelling and screaming profanities with slurred speech. Rangers gave her numerous commands to turn the vehicle off, she did not comply. Officer Heller reached in and turned the vehicle off. Rangers then gave SIYUJA commands to get out of the vehicle and she did not make any motion to exit the vehicle and said "No" several times. I observed a strong odor of alcohol coming from SIYUJA. Officer Heller, Hodgson and I removed SIYUJA with physical control from the vehicle through the driver's side door by grabbing her arms and pulling, and pushing from behind. SIYUJA resisted and fought with officers while being placed in hand cuffs by bracing her arms and pulling them away from officer's grips. We placed SIYUJA in handcuffs behind her back. SIYUJA did not comply with any commands to stand or walk and we had to carry her away from the vehicle into an open area to conduct a search incident to arrest. Officers carried SIYUJA to the back door of a caged police vehicle and attempted to place her in the back. SIYUJA actively resisted being placed into the vehicle by bracing her upper body and legs against the door frame as she was pushed and pulled into the vehicle. Throughout the contact SIYUJA continued yelling and screaming profanities with slurred speech.

SIYUJA was transported to station one for post arrest intoxication screening and processing. SIYUJA refused to provide a breath sample and a blood draw warrant was then requested and obtained by Officer Heller.

SIYUJA requested to use the bathroom, she was accompanied by two female officers, myself and Officer ORFE. SIYUJA was escorted into the bathroom, handcuffs were removed to allow her to use the facilities. Just after washing her hands and prior to cuffs being placed back on, SIYUJA punched me with a closed fist in the right side of my head. Orfe and I grabbed SIYUJA's hands and pinned her into the wall and counter to gain physical control. We placed SIYUJA back in handcuffs in the rear. With the assistance of other officers we transferred her to a medical gurney with cuffs in front and soft restraints.

Officer Hovanec conducted the DUI processing, and blood draw. SIYUJA actively resisted the blood draw by flexing and moving her arms resulting in minor bleeding secondary to the needle being removed. Throughout the blood draw process SIYUJA continued yelling and screaming profanities with slurred speech.

I issued SIYUJA a federal violation notice for 36 CFR 4.14 (b) carrying/storing open container of alcoholic beverage within a motor vehicle.
